

Non-settlement appeals lodged in the UK

This is the end of the AIT's part of the process. The overseas post will not receive the determination until approximately 6 weeks later. Please wait until then before contacting post.

*The Asylum and Immigration Tribunal (AIT) is a tribunal which hears appeals against decisions made in asylum, immigration and nationality matters. The AIT aim to hear appeals at the earliest possible date 19 weeks after the appeal was lodged. Please be aware if you lodged your appeal between July and October, due to the increase in numbers of appeals, your appeal is likely to have to wait longer before it can be heard. Answers to frequently asked questions (FAQ's) about appeals can be found on AIT website www.ait.gov.uk.
