

Paragraph 320 (7B) – Immigration Offender

Any previous breach of UK immigration law by applicant by:

- Overstaying
- Breach of condition attached to leave
- Being an illegal entrant
- Previous deception in application for entry clearance, LTE or LTR whether successful or not?

UNLESS

The applicant:

- Overstayed for 28 days or less and left UK voluntarily not at Secretary of State expense
- Used deception in an entry clearance application more than 10 years ago
- Left the UK voluntarily more than 12 months ago not at Secretary of State expense
- Left the UK voluntarily more than 5 years ago at Secretary of State expense
- Was removed or deported from the UK more than 10 years ago
- Is now applying for settlement, family reunion or rights of access (320 7C)
- Breached immigration laws when under 18 years of age or recognised victim of human trafficking (320 7C)
- Was unaware that false documents submitted or false representations made
- Previously issued a visa in the knowledge of the immigration breach
- Refused further leave as a student only because of out of time application

